Cost of the Night Guard Enuresis System

Home / Buy or Rent the Enuresis Alarm System? / Cost of the Night Guard Enuresis System

What is the Cost of the Night Guard Enuresis System

Even if you can, of course, start by purchasing the NIGHT GUARD system, it is in general , a better option to start by renting it. Overall, most of our customers prefer to start with a rental.

If you only have one kid requiring a Treatment for Enuresis issues, and that your private insurance is not covering this type of expenses, it is probably better to head towards a rental of the NIGHT GUARD system, at least for a start.

As a general rule, you are still free to purchase the system during the treatment as you have a
