

Our Beginnings

Internationally recognized Ceramic Artist Susan Robertson's pottery has been making people smile for over 35 years. She believes that everyone should live with art they love, and she designs her work to be truly useful and beautiful. Her pottery reflects her love of colour and sense of humour, and is inspired by nature and the world around her.

Since 1983, Susan's Artistic Practice has grown from a traditional method of direct retailing through craft fairs and a few retail stores as well as exhibiting her one-of-a kind work, to selling her work through select stores across Canada and the United States. Her Practice centres around her production work which she designs for resale. Susan has built a strong reputation for quality craftsmanship and reliability. She proudly sells her work through retail stores in Canada and the States.

Proudly Canadian Handmade

Our pottery is designed by Susan Robertson and is handmade by a small, skilled team in the prairie community of Outlook, Saskatchewan. Made from stoneware clay, our tableware is hand-painted with colorful underglazes and/or stains, and finished with a clear glaze. It is food, microwave, oven, and dishwasher safe. Each pot is stamped with "Made in Canada" and the "Susan Robertson pottery" signature.

Over the years, the number of items and patterns that we produce has grown into the hundreds. This catalogue features many of our newest motifs, which have been developed over the past two years. Don't worry; all of your favourite items and designs are still available, so hang on to our previous catalogues for reference. And yes, we still do custom work!

Just Email us or give us a call. We have a great group of people just waiting to serve you and we really do care!
