Susan Robertson pottery

Nature in Clay

Our Beginnings

Born in Cornwall, Ontario, Susan has lived in Outlook, Saskatchewan since 1983. Susan moved to Saskatchewan to provide a rural upbringing for her children. The isolation from her roots and her new baby soon resulted in "cabin fever." Her husband suggested that she take a local pottery class and she has never looked back. Soon, making pots evolved into a full-time business, making and selling her functional and decorative pottery to select stores across Canada and the United States.

Susan believes that you should live with art you love and she designs her pottery to be truly useful and beautiful.

Proudly Canadian Handmade

Our pottery is designed by internationally recognized ceramic artist Susan Robertson and is handmade by a small, skilled team in the prairie community of Outlook, Saskatchewan. Made from stoneware clay, our tableware is hand-painted with colorful underglazes and/or stains and finished with a clear glaze. It is food, microwave, oven and dishwasher safe. Each pot is stamped with "Made in Canada" and the Susan Robertson pottery signature.

Over the years, the number of items and patterns that we produce has grown into the hundreds. This catalogue features many of our newest motifs, which have been developed over the past two years. Don't worry; all of your favourite items and designs are still available, so hang on to our previous catalogues for reference. And yes, we still do custom work!

Just Email us or give us a call. We have a great group of people just waiting to serve you and we really do care!
